Effective Legal Intelligence

JPC

jpclaw.co.uk

JPC is an award-winning commercial and private client practice.

Our innovative approach of ‘success through unity’ has served to build and maintain long-standing relationships with both international and UK-based clients.

Proactive rather than reactive, we bring together expertise from across our team, delivering tailored solutions to a broad client base.

We are proud of our people, who together create a diverse and driven team. We deal with all matters professionally, efficiently and effectively. We are fully committed to social responsibility and regularly support and engage with local charities and groups in our community.

JPC are members of the League of Lawyers and the International Association of Practising Lawyers.

Our mission is to work together across disciplines, achieving successful outcomes in an ever-evolving market through skilfully applied legal intelligence.

Private Client

Different stages of life bring different legal issues – and individual client matters remain at the centre of everything we do.

Real Estate

Property law is what we are known for – our team work at the cutting edge of the commercial and residential property sectors.

Our diverse team actively engage with our values and deal with every matter professionally, efficiently and respectfully.

Our team enjoy sharing and are driven to contribute to the whole firm to achieve the best possible client outcomes. We have nurtured a supportive and open-minded team which works collaboratively across our disciplines. Our team seek to learn from both your peers and clients to ensure they apply principles of creative and effective legal intelligence.

JPC is driven by three highly experienced partners who provide strong and supportive leadership.

Our people are the very heartbeat of JPC. They are humble in a dynamic and challenging environment.

“We would gladly refer clients to JPC. Their professional approach has meant our constant return to the firm. Any problematic scenarios have been clear and solution orientated. Their diligence and efficiency with any work we have given them has made us feel valued as customers within the firm.”

Our core values underpin the work we do at JPC, allowing us to provide the highest standards of service for all our stakeholders.

We believe in:

Hard work

We know we are only as good as the effort we put in, and we are driven to work as hard as we can to get the results our clients want.

Humanity

We see our clients as people first and foremost. We bring humility to our work, bridging the gap between complex law and the clients we serve.

Expertise

We employ experts with a depth of legal knowledge that encourages confidence in everyone who engages with us.

Leading

We strive to be industry leaders, contributing to and developing the profession as a whole.

Creation

We face challenges with a creative mindset. We look for solutions where others may give up.

Collaboration

We draw upon the strengths of the team, finding cross-discipline solutions for our clients. We encourage sharing and communication between all.

Evolving to offer a full range of legal services.

JPC is the product of a merger between Porter Crossick and the Private Client, Litigation and Trust and Probate departments of Roiter Zucker. Further expansion continued in 2009 when we were joined by the practice of Sherman Phillips.

In 2018, our expansion continued, with the acquisition of a central London practice 'Terence St J Millett' and in doing so increased our team in both residential and commercial real estate law.

Today, JPC operates from two key locations. You will find our head office based in a historic building (a former Victorian omnibus premises) in North London, and our Central London office in stunning South Kensington.
